Important Items to Take With You

You will have 7 days after eviction to pick up your belongings, excluding Sundays and federal holidays. You and your landlord must agree on times to pick up your items. You will have at least two days to pick up your items for no less than 16 hours total, between 8 am and 6 pm, during those 7 days. The landlord must provide contact information for who to contact to arrange for that access on the date of the hearing.

Take the following with you immediately after eviction:

- ☐ Identification
- ☐ Social Security cards
- ☐ Birth certificates
- ☐ Medications
- ☐ Medical, financial, and legal documents
- ☐ Change of season-
appropriate clothing
- ☐ Small sentimental items

Pets

Most emergency shelters cannot accept pets. Service animals are not considered pets and will be allowed into shelters with their owners.

Rehoming a pet

- Ask friends and family if they are able to adopt your pet
- List your pet online at petfinder.com, getyourpet.com, and rehome.adoptapet.com
- Humane Rescue Alliance
 - Call 202-723-5730 ext. 4 to schedule an appointment to surrender your pet
 - Try all rehoming options before setting up an appointment
